NEWSLETTER (2023-24) APRIL - SEPTEMBER

"The road to freedom, here and everywhere, begins in the classroom." -
Hubert H. Humphrey

TO KEEP LEARNING ALIVE AMID EVERY SITUATION, TEACHERS AND PARENTS MUST WORK TOGETHER. THE BEST OF EDUCATION IS BUILT UPON SUCH PARTNERSHIPS.

- It's important your child feels comfortable expressing any concerns or anxiety he or she may have about returning to school.
- Monitor your child's health and keep them home from school if they are ill.
  - Teach and model good hygiene practices for your children.
- Encourage your children to ask questions and express their feelings with you and their teachers.
- Remember that your child may have different reactions to stress; be patient and understanding.
- Coordinate with the school to receive information and ask how you can support school safety efforts.

Welcome

World Health Day - 7 April 2023

As we mark World Health Day on April 7th, we come together to reflect on the importance of global health and our shared responsibility to create a healthier, more equitable world. This year's theme underscores the significance of collaboration in addressing health challenges. It encourages us to work hand in hand, across borders and sectors, to build a brighter, healthier future for all.
