Republic Day Celebration:

WE ARE INDIANS FIRSTLY AND LASTLY.

----- B. R Ambedkar

India's 70th Republic Day was celebrated with great reverence in the school. A special Assembly was organised to mark the significance of the day. Group song and group dance activities were specially choreographed for the occasion and Inter House Group Dance Competition was also held to add a cultural touch to the function and to remind all of us the rich cultural legacy that we have inherited and cherish.

Let's catch a glimpse of the activities:

Inter House Group Dance Competition:

Here are the winners:

Pratap House – 1st Position

Shivaji House – 2nd Position

Tagore House – 3rd Position

Farewell – 2019

'If you are brave enough to say goodbye, life will reward you with a new HELLO!'

----- Paulo Coelho

Students of class XI bid farewell to their seniors with great enthusiasm and exuberance. The function commenced with the traditional 'Tilak' ceremony. Welcome speech by Kunal made the outgoing students feel special. Group dance and group song performances by juniors were thoughtfully conceptualised to mark the emotional significance of the day. Ramp Walk was the highlight of the event.

Class XII students thoroughly enjoyed the Musical Chair and other activities planned for the day in honour of them.

However, the most awaited moment of the event was the 'Reading of Citations' written aptly according to the character trait of each student of class XII and left everyone guessing thereby creating an environment of fun and laughter.

Students were awarded specific titles on the basis of their performance in ramp walk and general questions and answers round.
